

Week 1: Alone

Today we will look at the story of David and Bathsheba. Understand this is not exactly the model for “doing life together”. We’ll look at the reasons David, this man after God’s own heart, fell into temptation and what we can learn from his failure.

Text: 2 Samuel 11.

1. David got away from _____.

2. David got away from _____.

Week 1: Alone

Today we will look at the story of David and Bathsheba. Understand this is not exactly the model for “doing life together”. We’ll look at the reasons David, this man after God’s own heart, fell into temptation and what we can learn from his failure.

Text: 2 Samuel 11.

1. David got away from _____.

2. David got away from _____.

3. David got away from _____.

3. David got away from _____.

Conclusion:

God did send a man. When David would not repent and chose to justify and avoid facing his sin, God sent Nathan.

Conclusion:

God did send a man. When David would not repent and chose to justify and avoid facing his sin, God sent Nathan.

Ask yourself...

David had a destiny from God to fulfill. Do you believe God has a destiny for your life? If so what do you think that destiny or purpose is?

Do you have the presence of God in your life? Are you a part of a spiritual family that you can worship with and helps you grow?

Who do you have in your life that challenges you to do the right thing and follow God?

Read Psalms 32 and 51. Here you will experience David's heart when he comes to the place of repentance. Note the sorrow and cries of David before God.

Ask yourself...

David had a destiny from God to fulfill. Do you believe God has a destiny for your life? If so what do you think that destiny or purpose is?

Do you have the presence of God in your life? Are you a part of a spiritual family that you can worship with and helps you grow?

Who do you have in your life that challenges you to do the right thing and follow God?

Read Psalms 32 and 51. Here you will experience David's heart when he comes to the place of repentance. Note the sorrow and cries of David before God.