

Week 2: Getting in the Boat

God has always framed humanity in _____.

Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand were added to their number that day. They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. Everyone was filled with awe, and the apostles did many wonders and miraculous signs. All the believers were together and had everything in common. Selling their possessions and goods, they gave to anyone, as he had need. Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved. Acts 2:41-47

They devoted themselves to...

1. _____

The apostles taught a message of _____.

2. _____

The Greek word for "fellowship" is "koinonia." Today we often reduce fellowship to casual contact or merely being friendly with one another. But "koinonia" involves loving, caring, sharing fellowship. In one word, it is love.

There was an intense feeling of responsibility for each other in the early church. No one could bear to have too much while others had too little. They are not just giving money; they are giving up their possessions and goods; they are giving themselves.

3. _____

There are many different purposes in prayer: worship, intercession, repentance, petition, commissioning, etc.

After they prayed, the place where they were meeting was shaken. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God boldly. Acts 4:31

The best way to see our need for others is to examine the "one another" passages in the New Testament. There are over fifty of these passages. Here are just some of them:

- Love one another (Jn 13:34-35, Gal 5:14)
- Encourage one another (Heb 3:13; 10:24-25)
- Be devoted to one another (Rom 12:10)
- Build up one another (Rom 14:19; 1 Thess 5:11)
- Be kind to one another (1 Thess 5:15)
- Accept one another (Rom 15:7)
- Serve one another (Gal 5:13)
- Have concern for one another (1 Cor 12:25)
- Confess your sins to one another (Jm 5:16)
- Forgive one another (Eph 4:32)
- Teach and admonish one another (Col 5:16)
- Pray for one another (Jm 5:16)
- Don't judge one another (Rom 14:13)
- Don't slander one another (Jm 4:11)
