Three motives behind most everything we do.

1. I _____ to do this.
2. I _____ to do this.
3. I _____ to do this.

Question is: Where and who are you cheating?

Daniel 1

“Then the king ordered Ashpenaz, chief of his court officials, to bring in some of the Israelites from the royal family and the nobility—⁴young men without any physical defect, handsome, showing aptitude for every kind of learning, well informed, quick to understand, and qualified to serve in the king’s palace. He was to teach them the language and literature of the Babylonians.⁵ The king assigned them a daily amount of food and wine from the king’s table. They were to be trained for three years, and after that they were to enter the king’s service.

But Daniel resolved not to defile himself with the royal food and wine, and he asked the chief official for permission not to defile himself this way.⁹ Now God had caused the official to show favor and sympathy to Daniel, At the end of the ten days they looked healthier and better nourished than any of the young men who ate the royal food.

To these four young men God gave knowledge and understanding of all kinds of literature and learning. And Daniel could understand visions and dreams of all kinds.

In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king questioned them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters in his whole kingdom.”

The Office

Regardless of the type of work we do we all spend a significant portion of our life at our job. Today we’ll continue our look into what the Bible has to say about careers, bosses, success, and keeping up.

Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men,²⁴ since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving.
Col. 3:23-24

The 3 Month Tithe Challenge

Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house. Test me in this," says the LORD Almighty," and see if I will not throw open the floodgates of heaven and pour out so much blessing that you will not have room enough for it. - Malachi 3:10

A tithe is 10% of your income. This is a big commitment for anyone. So, try the three month challenge: Tithe for three months. If God doesn't hold true to the promises in Malachi 3:10-11, we'll give it all back.

Simply fill-out the Communication Card on your table and indicate the date you will start and the amount that represents a tithe of your income. If after three months you feel that it has not worked for you we will refund what you have given, no questions asked.
